REELFOOT WILL BE FAVORITE IN THE FREE-FOR-ALL

Big Crowd Expected to Attend Races This Afternoon at Fair Ground.

Yesterday's Events Were Exciting and Close.

ONE TIE RACE DEVELOPED

One of the largest crowds that ever went to a race track in the Purchase will attend the races this afternoon, as the big free-for-all race that has drawn horses of merit, will be on. The bookmakers no doubt will do a land office business. Most of the stores will close about 1 o'clock by agreement and every one will go to the race track. Many people from the county and Illinois will be in the city, and the hotel registers have increased in length. Reelfoot is a favorite in the big race, although there is talk that a dark horse may emerge from the bunch. The last two days of the races will be stronger than the first two, while this afternoon will see the strongest program.

Yesterday's Races.

Another large crowd watched the horses race yesterday and cheered the winner whether it meant a financial loss to him or not. The crowd while minus a few women after "Ladies Day" was in good spirits, and owing to the closeness in the 2:24 race the big share of the crowd could not leave the grandstand until the pace was continued until today owing to darkness. The pace was the warmest fight yet, and after five nerve racking heats it was a tie for first money between Belle T., owned by E. D. Smith, of Evansville, and Sam Patch, owned by T. J. Reid, of Paducah, and driven by Thomas Settle. It was a race with one up and one down so that the crowd could not get away from the track. It was the only way that the race could be a tie when Sam Patch went under the wire first and Belle T. third in the fifth heat. Had the Belle not allowed Sarah McClure to push her out by a nose, the race would have been off with Belle T. a good winner.

Already it was growing dark, and before a rest of 25 minutes could be given, starting Judge W. L. Talbot decided to postpone it until the first race for today, which proved agreeable to the two owners, who would do anything to win the next heat.

The race opened with the first heat of the 2:25 trot and the entries were: Prince of Pilsen, owned by E. D. Smith, of Evansville; Baroness, owned by George Goodman, of Adward, owned by J. E. McGowan, of Hopkinsville. In the first heat Adward refused to trot, and Baroness and Prince of Pilsen were in front, with Baroness in the lead. After a good run, she broke, and Prince of Pilsen went up, and maintained the lead until the wire was crossed. Time of heat, 2:33.

In the second heat on the first score down they were given the word with Prince of Pilsen in the lead. In the first turn he broke, but gained ground instead of losing, while Baroness followed closely. Prince of Pilsen led the half mile, and again on the turn broke, but gained territory in a way that made the crowd take notice. On the home stretch Baroness broke, and Prince of Pilsen won easily, as Adward was left far in the rear. Time of heat, 2:29.

The third and deciding heat was won easily by Prince of Pilsen. Prince of Pilsen took the lead, and maintained it all the way, although for a few seconds Baroness pushed him. After the first half mile Baroness broke, was out of the run, and Prince of Pilsen captured the third heat with the greatest of ease. Time of heat, 2:33.

The 2:24 Pace. In the 2:24 pace where the crowd got a run for the admission charge, and also the "bookies" made a run on the crowd. The entries were: Belle T., owned by E. D. Smith, of Evansville; Sarah McClure, owned by M. M. Tucker, Lady May Carter, owned by S. T. Taylor, Peoria, Ill.; Gus B., owned by McMaTucker, Sta. Well, owned by Williams, of Columbus, Miss.; Sam Patch, owned by T. J. Reid. Much speculation had been indulged in, and stories of wonderful doings of Lady May Carter floated over the crowd swamped the book makers.

On the third score down the first heat was run with Sarah McClure in the lead at the start, with Sam Patch on her feet. Gus B. and Belle T. broke, but finished strong. In the finish Belle T. won second place from Sam Patch by a nose, while Sarah McClure was given first place. Time of heat, 2:29 1/4.

In the second heat they left in a bunch, but Sarah McClure took the Cadiz, Sept. 17.—(Special.)—The jury in the case of the nine men accused of night riding and whipping Dave Cassidy, returned a verdict of not guilty. Cairo Detective Here. Detective Casey, of Cairo, was in Paducah today to attend the races at the fair ground. He was accompanied by several prominent Cairo people. Chief Collins gave the visitors an automobile ride this morning.

Blackmailers Again Foiled. New York, Sept. 17.—Failing to receive the sum of $2,000 they had demanded of Santa Reda, a well-to-do real estate dealer, blackmailers for the fourth time in a month sought to kill him and his family by setting fire to his home. Extraordinary measures were taken to prevent their escape, including the wring of all the outside doors of the home. All the family would have perished if a neighbor had not discovered the fire.

Carrying a Weapon. John Buford, colored, was arrested this morning by Patrolman Henry Singery on the charge of carrying a weapon concealed. Buford had been in a fight near the Illinois Central dispatcher's office, and Patrolman Singery got wind of the trouble. He rushed over and arrested Buford, who was trying to escape. When searched Buford had a big gun concealed in his pocket, and he was locked up.

WASHINGTON NOT ADVISED AS TO CONFERENCE CALL. Washington, Sept. 17.—No advice have been received at the state department concerning the request of Germany and Italy for a conference of the powers at The Hague on the subject of a universal treaty. It was stated that such a request probably will reach Washington in two or three weeks.

Patrolman Singery Busy. Davy Johns, colored, was arrested this morning by Patrolman Henry Singery on a charge of breaking into the safe of the Thompson Transfer company. It is alleged that Johns broke the drawer to the safe and made way with $20. He was nabbed by the tall cop at Eleventh street and Broadway and was carried to the police station, where he denied the charge.

lead and had Gus B. for her partner. Belle T. was in a pocket for a short distance. Gus B. took the lead from (Continued on Page Four.)

ASSASSIN SEEKS PARDON OF ROYAL CHIEF ASSASSIN

St. Petersburg, Sept. 17.—Police Chief Jona, of Pabjanj, Russian Poland, was given a 12 year sentence for the murder of a prisoner suspected of holding reform views. Friends are working and probably will succeed in obtaining a pardon from the czar on the ground that the killing was due to over zeal in behalf of the government. The victim, Nicholas Grisel, was shot in cold blood.

Miss Wilson Dies in Japan. Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 17.—A cablegram from Kobe, announced the death there of Miss Addie M. Wilson, a missionary, who has been in the east about two years. She was the daughter of Mrs. G. B. Wilson, of Clarksville, and well known over Tennessee.

Treasury Statement. Washington, Sept. 17.—Today's statement of the treasury balances in the general fund, exclusive of the $150,000,000 gold reserve, shows: Available cash balance, $184,699,779; gold coin and bullion, $36,353,440; gold certificates, $28,599,700.

New Patrolmen on Duty. Patrolmen Walter England and John Bryan, newly elected, have started to work. Patrolmen England and Doyle are working at the Union station, while Patrolmen Eich and Bryan are patrolling the Fisherville beat. The new men handle the billy like veterans. England has badge 28 while Patrolman Bryan has badge No. 12 on his coat.

Locomotive Mishaves. Locomotive No. 1912 started running in the round house of the Illinois Central railroad last night and bumped into the wall before it was stopped. The engine is for passenger service, and it is thought that the throttle must accidentally have been hit, as the engine jumped off the track and struck the wall. The wall stopped her progress and employees got aboard and shut off the steam. Fortunately no one was in front of the wild engine. The headlight was shattered a little.

Nicaraguan Envoy to U. S. HAS RESIGNED. Washington, Sept. 17.—The report of the resignation of Minister Corea, of Nicaragua, he informed Acting Secretary of State Ade that he was returning to his country on a leave of absence and expected to be in Washington again about the first of December.

New Librarian. Miss Jessie Hopkins, of Montgomery, Ala., has been elected librarian of the public library by the trustees to succeed Miss Mamie Bayham, who resigned her position. Miss Hopkins is a graduate of the Carnegie library school, and recently she catalogued the library of the University of Georgia. She is a competent librarian and comes highly recommended. Miss Aline Bagby will remain the assistant librarian.

DROUGHT FATAL TO VEGETABLES IN THIS SECTION

Farmers and gardeners on the market say that late crops and vegetables are almost ruined by the continued drought and it is too late for rains to do much good, especially to vegetables. Late corn is said to be standing the dry spell better than anything, but there are few fields that would mature now should the drought be broken this week. Passenger coaches coming into the Union station are all covered with dust and have the appearance of having crossed the desert, showing that the dry spell is general throughout the county. The city street department has had several sprinklers running in the residence portion this week, but it has been an uneven fight against the dust, which covered one as soon as the streets are reached. It has been five weeks now since rain fell in this section and there is yet no relief in sight.

Dr. Phillips is a practicing physician at Dycusburg and will move to this city immediately. Colonel Dale will move his family from the hotel to Fourth and Adams street. The new proprietors will take charge of the New Richmond House Saturday afternoon. Colonel Dale started in business with $4 and did a $350,000 business entertaining 165,000 guests.

DRAWING BUCKET FROM WELL WHEN STRICKEN DOWN

While drawing a bucket of water from a well yesterday, Mrs. Albert Baldridge, who resides on the Cairo road, about two miles from the city, was stricken with paralysis. Mrs. Baldridge fell to the ground, and was not found until several hours, when a neighbor passed the well. She was carried to the house and physicians called. Today she is resting easier, but she is in a critical condition. She is a sister of Mr. John McFadden, driver of the truck at the No. 4 fire station.

Proof of General Conspiracy Not Permitted in Hunt-Gardner Case—Defense is Given a Severe Blow

Believed That Defense Intended to Rely on Justifiable Homicide to Save Alleged Slayers of Vaughn Bennett.

Clarksville, Tenn., Sept. 17.—In the criminal court in the Gardner-Hunt trial, after two hours' argument Judge Tyler ruled as irrelevant and therefore incompetent the question asked Chief Robinson on the witness stand relating to the alleged night rider conspiracy.

The defense, it is understood, proposed to prove that such a conspiracy existed but under this ruling they will be unable to introduce any testimony except that bearing directly upon this case. The judge stated that later he would rule further on this point.

In his argument Mr. Leech, of the defense, stated that he thought testimony relating to the entire situation was admissible. He said: "We have a tobacco association composed of a warehouse corporation to sell tobacco and those who are members pledge themselves to sell their tobacco through that corporation."

Organization of Riders. "There is a known organization called Night Riders, which are known by all, not encouraged by all, we know, but this state of affairs exists and in this case we propose to prove that this organization exists to promote the cause of the association."

"We are investigating the charge of murder. When these men left Clarksville they did not leave for the purpose of murder but to aid in putting down night riders. There was no malice because they could not feel that way against men they did not know."

Decisions were read from the supreme court in support of his argument, insisting that the entire history leading up to the act should be shown.

Mr. Savage, of the state, said he could not see how the state of facts now known should make the question propounded admissible.

"Where has any fact been shown to prove that there is any connection between the tobacco association and night riders," he asked.

"No proof that there is any such connection has been presented, and before the question becomes competent we are to assume that the association and night riders are the same, and many other things that we cannot do."

Mr. Fort said that to admit such testimony would mean that the case would be continued indefinitely, and would really be an admission that every crime committed within the past three or four years had been done by night riders.

Chief Again Called. Mr. Meeks, of the defense, spoke of the legality of the question. Chief of Police Robinson again took the stand following the court's ruling. He said that he made one mistake in regard to the return of the buggy; that Sam Moore was not in the buggy. Witness understood that the men were going to render aid to the people in the section where the night riders were seen. In his opinion, there was a great deal of feeling against the defendants here and they were afraid of violence if they were put in jail here. He said Henry Cook, John Gardner, B. H. Sory, Sam Moore and Wallace Hunt went out in the country that night.

Sory a Special Officer. The state again took the witness, who said that Sory was a special officer of the city and Cook was a constable and city guard. Witness said

TELEPHONES ARE BEING INSTALLED ON I. C. RAILWAY

Work is being hurried of putting in the telephone system for the Illinois Central connecting every station between Louisville and Memphis with the line. When completed it is said many changes will be made and a number of telegraph offices discontinued entirely and trains handled by telephone, evading the extra expenses that has been forced upon the roads by the law, providing that telegraphers may work only nine hours went into effect.

Another feature of the system will be that railroad employees will have the privilege of communicating with other employees at any point on the line without charge, provided the conversation is in regard to official business.

It is expected the system will be in operation within two weeks time.

EDISON TO ENTER FIELD OF AERIAL INVENTION SOON

Salt Lake, Sept. 17.—Edison is here. He says probably he will enter the field of the aerial invention. He predicts that within five years airplanes will be crossing the Atlantic in eighteen hours, the north pole will be reached in 40 hours and the world encircled in a week. He declares the dirigible balloon is a farce and the aeroplane impracticable. He suggests circular application of the aeroplane principle and the human part reduced to mere mechanism as in the case of the automobile.

the party was organized by Mr. Sory to go to the country that night. At that time Sory had the same authority over the city guards that he did.

The chief did not authorize Sory to go to the country that night. He could not name anyone that ever said anything about forming a mob against the defense.

The next witness was Dr. C. R. Crouch, who was being examined when court took a recess.

Sensational Evidence. The most sensational testimony yet introduced in the Gardner-Hunt murder trial was given when Chief of Police J. E. Robinson told of a conversation with John Gardner, one of the defendants, upon their return to police headquarters on the night of the killing, in which Gardner said they had killed one or two men and two horses. It is now believed that the defendants will plead justifiable homicide.

When court convened for the afternoon session the attorneys had a tilt over turning over the grand jury records to defendants' attorneys. Herman Davis was the first witness called, but before the examination began Mr. Daniel, of the defense, asked the court if he would be permitted to have the papers now in the possession of Attorney-General Lyle. The latter stated that he had written this testimony for his own use, while examining witnesses in the grand jury room, and he regarded it as his private property. He also stated that the grand jury book was in the hands of the clerk of the court, which the defense had a right to and could obtain at any time.

Mr. Savage, of the state, argued that the proceedings of the grand jury should not be divulged at any time, and it seemed that the defense could only prove what was testified to before the grand jury by asking the witness if he stated such before that body. The court held there was no question before the court, and as the state counsel had agreed to let the defense have the papers spoken of at the morning session, there was nothing else to do now but to turn the papers over to the defense.

Squire A. L. Davis, who had been on the stand nearly all morning, was recalled and Herman Davis was sent out. Squire Davis said: "I have stated that I swore to a statement before the grand jury." Mr. Leech then read what was purported to be the statement made before the grand jury relating to the cloth on the face of Bennett, which was about the same as made by Ernest Woodson. Witness said he made a statement similar to that read. He said he found some loaded shells, about 38 size, in the pockets of Vaughn Bennett.

Mr. Savage, of the state, objected to the reading of parts of the sworn statement, but the court ruled that the question could be asked. Mr. Savage asked if the defense would agree to the paper being read to the jury, he would do so, because, otherwise, it would be incompetent.

Oh, Look Who's Here!

Fulton, Ky., Sept. 17.—Last night the Democracy of Fulton county, under the leadership of the Young Men's Democratic club, unfurled its banner to the breeze, gave the yell for Bryan, and fired its thirteen-inch guns at the Republican enemy. The oratorical cannoners were the Hon. Joseph Huffaker and the Hon. Thomas Drewry, of Louisville, and ex-Lieutenant Governor Thorne, of Eminence.

Odd Fellows at Fulton

G. Z. Umbaugh, grand patriarch of the state, Frank Digel and Harry L. Judd went to Fulton last night as the guests of the Fulton encampment No. 14. A class of six new members were initiated by the Fulton degree team. The Paducah Odd Fellows were loud in their praise of the excellent work of the degree team. The Paducah party returned at 1:25 o'clock this morning.

CLARKSVILLE IS TERRORIZED BY THE NIGHT RIDERS

Montgomery County, Tennessee, is Not Behind Kentucky Black Patch

Boycott is Driving Merchants to Verge of Ruin.

PEOPLE ARE LEAVING STATE

Former citizens of Clarksville, Tenn., who have returned to Paducah from visits in that city, report conditions in Montgomery county, Tenn., that rival, if they do not exceed, anything in the Black Patch of Kentucky. It was Montgomery county, where night riding found its birth place, although most of the big damage has been done in the Kentucky counties of the Third judicial district.

Montgomery county is terrorized, in spite of the fact that soldiers, detailed as possemen are on guard, as well as a local guard of Clarksville. Members of pioneer families of West Tennessee are leaving, some of them under advice of their physicians, that they are on the verge of a nervous collapse from constant vigilance to protect their crops, and the fear for the safety of their families.

Night after night the clatter of hoofs on the highways betoken the activity of the riders, and every morning someone finds a warning note with a bundle of sticks, matches or cartridges, fastened to his door. (No one goes out to investigate noises). The most minute details of community life are regulated by these outlaws.

Clarksville itself is infested with the organization, and the boycott is bringing some merchants close to ruin, coupled with the fact that not half the tobacco is sold, and collections are the worst in history. A man whose clerk belonged to the law and order league, was compelled to discharge him. Another was compelled to remove from his office the photograph of a public official, who had incurred the displeasure of the leading outlaws. Nothing is too petty for their attention.

In spite of the boldness and activity of the night riders, as everywhere in the black patch the overwhelming majority of citizens are against night riders; but they are intimidated, and they want such protection as will absolutely insure them against molestation before they will speak out.

Horse Runs Away.

A horse hitched to a scavenger wagon and driven by a negro ran away on Broadway this morning, starting near the High school. The street was filled with school children at the time and several had narrow escapes but none were hurt. The wagon was completely demolished and pieces of the vehicle, harness and other things were scattered for several blocks.

No Frisco Deal, Says Harriman.

New York, Sept. 17.—E. H. Harriman walked into his office in the Union Pacific-Southern Pacific headquarters shortly after noon today to take up his duties connected with the control of the two Pacifics, the Illinois Central, the Baltimore & Ohio, the Erie, the Delaware & Hudson, the Wheeling & Lake Erie, the Missouri Pacific, and probably a few other roads, after his month of vacation on the Pacific coast.

He ridiculed the rumors of any possible control of the St. Louis & San Francisco system, which has been a matter of gossip in financial circles recently.

Sedalia, Mo., Sept. 17.—Five additional deaths as the result of the explosion of black powder at Windsor, Mo., yesterday, occurred at hospitals in Sedalia today. This brings the total dead up to twelve.

Among those who died today was conductor A. F. Hensberger, who, according to testimony brought out today, threw the match which caused the explosion.

Any Scalawag Could Start a Bank.

"Under the law any one who can furnish $25,000 can start a bank, but in practice, as a rule, no one can start a bank who can not also furnish a character which leads the community to trust him and deposit their money with him. If, however, the sound and honest banks of the country guarantee the debts of every bank a well-earned reputation for honesty and business judgment will no longer be necessary as a part of the banker's capital. It will no longer be necessary for the community to consider whether a banker is honest or not. Any scalawag can start a bank and obtain deposits on the credit of all the banks of the country. Any one who wishes to use funds in speculative enterprises can start a bank, invite deposits and thus borrow money on the credit of the entire banking capital of the United States. With such opportunities, who can doubt that the standard of character of the bankers of the country would deteriorate and the use of banking funds for speculative enterprises would increase and that the losses which the honest bankers would be required to make good would increase correspondingly.

"This burden will fall not merely upon the stockholders of the banks, but upon the depositors also. Much banking capital would inevitably be driven out of the business and such as remained would have to make good its losses by reducing the rate of interest to its depositors and increasing the rate of interest upon loans. The profits of the banking business, like those of the merchant, the manufacturer and the farmer, depend upon good management. The attempt to make all the profits of good management bear all the losses of bad management is a step in the socialistic process which would level all distinctions between thrift, enterprise and sound judgment on the one hand, and recklessness, incapacity and failure on the other.

"Except for campaign purposes there is no occasion for any such scheme. The business men of the country need no guarantee of bank deposits. They know with whom they are dealing when they select a bank for deposits, and their intelligence and knowledge of affairs are amply sufficient for their own protection in making the selection. The wage earners of the country, the multitude of people of small savings, not familiar with business, so far as they live in places where there are savings banks, have practically perfect safety for their deposits, and over eight and a half million of them are enjoying that safety now with a good degree of interest. For them, if they prefer it, and for all who live in places which are not accessible to savings banks, the Republican party proposes that the government shall furnish absolute security through a postal savings bank, so that the wage earner can deposit his savings at the nearest postoffice and have the guarantee of the government that it shall be returned; but that guarantee will be accompanied by the possession and control of the money itself so that neither the depositor nor the government can lose. This simple supplement to the banking and savings system meets every requirement, and, unlike the Democratic proposal, it has been proved safe and practicable by the experience of many countries, and it violates no principle of sound finance or of common sense."

CANNON SPEAKS OUT IN KANSAS

Delivered Two Addresses at Independence.

Takes Up Part of First Speech to Show Fallacy of Democratic Policy.

DISCUSSES TARIFF QUESTION

Independence, Kas., Sept. 17.—Speaker Cannon made two speeches here at the opening of the Republican state campaign. At the afternoon meeting Cannon said that two years ago he and Congressman Campbell, of Kansas, had a conference with President Roosevelt and the president insisted that then was no time to bring on a tariff fight in congress; that it should be staved off until conditions were more favorable. He (Cannon) helped to stave it off, and yet he is the only one to get the blame. He continued:

"Foreigners don't pay any of our taxes. They don't help us keep up our schools and public institutions. Then, why should we let them come in and share our profits of trade? I say give the people at home who pay the taxes the inside track on our trade. The Democratic platform wants to tear down the tariff wall, which means that our labor must suffer, as well as our agricultural and industrial industries."

"The Republicans propose to adjust the tariff, cut it down where it is new too high, but in doing so we will fully protect our own labor. We have had a protective tariff ever since the days of Lincoln, except for four years, and you folks know what happened in those four years."

At the night meeting Cannon made a defense of the house rules, declaring that the rules of the present house have been substantially the rules of the house under the control of all parties for more than a generation, including two Democratic congresses. Prior to the fifty-first congress, it lay in the power of the minority to indefinitely obstruct the transaction of business by demanding yeas and nays and then refusing to vote on the call of the roll, thus breaking the quorum.

Reed made a change that enabled the speaker to count the quorum. This procedure was also adopted by the fifty-second and fifty-third congresses, which were Democratic. He showed that the house is not under the absolute domination of the speaker, as charged by the Democrats but that the speaker can be removed any time by a majority of the house, and is the only officer of the government who can be so arbitrarily deposed.

MRS. ASTOR

STRIKES AT SOCIETY STUNTS OF "400."

Says President is Fine Example of Real Manhood for Young Men of America.

New York, Sept. 16.—"I am not vain enough to think New York will not be able to get along very well without me. Many women will rise up to take my place. But I hope my influence will be felt in one thing, and that is in discountenancing the undignified methods employed by certain New York women to attract a following."

"They have given entertainments that belonged under a circus tent rather than in a gentleman's home."

In this cutting manner does Mrs. William Astor, who recently, owing to her great years, abdicated her position as leader of New York society, show her disapproval of the methods of some members of the "smart set" in an interview published in the October Delinquent.

Says Women Seek Notoriety. Referring to the women who are constantly forcing themselves into the limelight, Mrs. Astor went on: "Their sole object is notoriety, a thing that no lady ever seeks, but rather shrinks from. Women of this stamp are few in New York, but alas they are so appallingly active. They have done untold harm to the good name of American society in the minds of foreigners."

"When a distinguished man arrives from the other side, he is seized upon relentlessly, although possibly a stranger to his hostess, and plunged into a mad whirl of extraordinary festivities. He enters upon them with much the same spirit that we would have as spectators of an Indian war dance and thus he forms his opinion of us. I have never entertained a foreigner in my life unless he came to me with a letter of introduction. "The best women in New York society, those of the greatest influence and those who give it its true tone, are almost unknown outside of their own circle. Society newspaper notoriety is interesting to them, as it is to me, as a study, a very amusing one, too, sometimes, as one gains so much information about certain women supposed to belong to us, but whom we never see and do not know even by sight."

Likes Old French Ideal.

After remarking that her ideal of society was the old French salon in the heyday of its prestige, Mrs. Astor said: "The political hostesses have a much better chance of realizing such an ideal today than we women of New York. Over there you find at the big balls and musicales a brilliant array of cabinet ministers, journalists, ambassadors, men and women of the stage, painters and poets and the powers of the money world, such as no leader in New York could bring together or would attempt to bring together."

"I have thought of doing it all my life, but have never seen the possibility of success. In the first place, we have too many politicians in America, where in England they have statesmen. Many of our senators and congressmen seem to base their title to public favor upon their uncouth manners and lack of refinement, upon the fact that they have discarded socks, or once wore blue jeans."

"If they were all like Mr. Roosevelt, what a difference there would be. Mr. Roosevelt is a true American but he would be at home in the most elegant court in Europe. He is not above paying scrupulous attention to his wardrobe and his manners. Any hostess in New York or Newport would be proud to entertain him, and the men in Washington like him."

LABEL "IMITATION" WHISKY.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 17.—Whisky and other liquors must have age and natural color or be labeled "imitation," so decided Judge Humphreys in the United States District court in the case of Wolfner & company, distillers and rectifiers of Peoria, Ill., who asked a temporary injunction against Thomas Rennack, collector of internal revenue, restraining the federal authorities from compelling that there be a distinction shown in labels on whisky as to whether it is pure or "imitation." Under the decision goods must be labeled imitation if they are classed as such.

In the opinion denying the injunction the court upholds regulation of May 5, 1908, under which the order for labels on "imitation" goods is made, and meets one of the arguments of the distillers that it has been customary to label all goods as pure with a declaration criticizing the commissioner of internal revenue. On this point the court says the commissioner "has been tardy in promulgating a regulation which he had legal power to enforce, even before congress gave emphasis to the subject by the enactment of the food and drugs act."

The decision will affect distillers and rectifiers all over the country, and has been eagerly awaited by manufacturers and shippers of liquor.

MINISTER HORSEWHIPPED.

Woman Claims He Referred to Her in Uncomplimentary Terms in Sermon.

Alexandria, La., Sept. 17.—The Rev. H. C. Wroten, a Baptist minister, was publicly horsewhipped on the streets of Pineville, a suburb of Alexandria, by Mrs. Bonita Schwartzberg, a widow, because she alleged the minister referred to her in terms uncomplimentary in a sermon. The minister took the horsewhipping with out resistance. Mrs. Schwartzberg was arrested and fined $1. Mr. Wroten denied that he reflected on the woman. The minister's wife witnessed the horsewhipping.

NO ACCIDENTS IN NATURE.

Every Calamity, No Matter How Great, Has a Definite Beginning.

There are no accidents in nature. The avalanche that without a moment's warning rushes headlong down the mountain side is not an accident.

For years previous tiny atoms have been crystallizing, and adding their minute weight to the mass which left its base when the accumulation reached a certain point.

Neither is baldness an accident. The infinitesimally small germ which is the cause of Dandruff and Baldness, feeds silently and long before the result is seen.

The small germs which thrive on the scalp and which are the cause of Baldness and Dandruff cannot exist, however, when Newbro's Herpelide is applied.

BARN IS BURNED

J. H. DUVALL LOST HIS ENTIRE CROP OF TOBACCO.

Blaze is supposed to have started from a Coal Left From Firing.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 17.—J. H. Duvall, who lives six miles from town on the Greenville road, lost his barn and entire crop of tobacco grown this year, by fire. The tobacco was estimated at 12,000 pounds and was an unusually fine and well cured crop. Nothing whatever was saved from the barn and there was no insurance on it.

The curing process was completed and the fires were put out, as it was thought.

Mr. Duvall stated that evidently some of the coals were overlooked and that the blaze started from these. The loss falls very heavily upon Mr. Duvall and his many friends sympathize with him.

Convict Leases End in 1909.

Atlanta, Ga., Sept. 17.—A new start toward convict legislation was made by the senate passing the sub-bill introduced with the signatures of twenty-seven senators. The bill received only twenty-five votes, and eleven votes were cast against it.

The measure will now go to the house. This bill goes to the prison commission control over both felony and misdemeanor convicts, and provides that leasing to private parties shall end on March 31, 1909.

Hiram Smedley a candidate for re-

McCracken County Court subject to City Jailor.

The Sun is authorized to announce

Daily Thought.

Crosses are the ladders that reach to heaven.—French.

If the tax assessors camp on the trails of William Jennings Bryan and Joe Cannon, they will wish they hadn't talked about each other.

Which party is the friend of labor;

the one that espouses a policy that makes high wages possible, or the one that encourages strife between capital and labor?

There is no doubt that night riders would consider a Democratic victory in Kentucky this fall a rebuke to Governor Wilson for sending soldiers into the Black Patch, and an expression of public sympathy with lawlessness.

Isn't it funny that an air ship should be compelled to tie up because of too much wind? Who ever heard of a steamboat being hampered by too much water?

How a little political corruption leaveneth the whole lump. Behold

Tammany entrenched in New York

City, and dictating to the state Democratic convention. Compare Roosevelt, Hughes, Root, Cortelyou, Seth

Low, Strauss, with the Tammany men.

Mr. Bryan says he is bound by his platform, as much by what it omits as by what it contains. It omits all reference to free silver and government ownership of railroads; yet we are not thereby estopped from judging Bryan by his past utterances.

IMPROVE THE RIVERS.

No other organization has done more effective work than the Ohio

Valley Improvement association toward securing the permanent and consistent and systematic improvement of our water highways, and it was the success and growing influence of this organization that moved

Chicago and St. Louis people to begin the agitation of the chimerical ship canal through the valley. All the year-round navigation from Pittsburg to Cairo and from Knoxville on the Tennessee, and Nashville on the Cumberland, to Paducah would do more for this city and the whole valley than anything else we could think of.

The present situation of the river

trade is significant of the conditions river men have to face. The lower

Ohio is full of shoals and the one boat running, the Dick Fowler, can not make more than half her landings. Such a condition affects the Paducah wholesale trade with southern Illinois and Ballard county points.

With the cheap and regular boat service Paducah has something like a monopoly. With the necessity of shipping by train and carting overland, Paducah must compete with other railroad points.

Coal towing boats are tied up,

when they might be rushing coal down from Pittsburg. Cumberland river boats cannot get into the mouth of that stream from the Ohio, and the Tennessee river packets, which find the Tennessee an accommodating stream for the lower reaches, have difficulty in the lower Ohio getting to the Mississippi.

The efforts of the Lee line to give some kind of service between Cincinnati and Memphis whenever the stage permits, indicates that the business is these whenever the packet lines are able to handle it. The Paducah and Evansville trade, which keeps two big packets busy in high water, has dwindled to one light draught boat that threads its way among the shoals and then stopped. Such irregularity, of course, interferes with the packet lines' profits. If the Ohio river had a nine foot stage and the other rivers a good stage, we should see regular lines between Cincinnati and Memphis, St. Louis and Cincinnati, Knoxville and Paducah, Nashville and Paducah, Chattanooga and Paducah, and the ante-bellum days would be recalled.

There is only one way to get these improvements and that is for all to pull together. Time was when river and harbor improvements meant graft and jealousy, and one congressman voted appropriations for another district in return for like support.

The Ohio Valley Improvement association has done more to take away

this stigma of graft and place river improvements on the systematic basis the engineers demand than any other organization. Jealousy was put aside, and the association voted for beginning the improvements at the lower end of the river and working up, the only sensible plan and the one advocated by all United States engineers.

There is no idle scheme, no dreamland fancy about river improvements.

TOM LAWSON IN 1912.

"An enthusiastic follower of Mr.

Bryan rushed up to the Nebraska in Wheeling, W. Va., threw his arms around him and kissed him," says the Nashville Banner. "Unfortunately the oscillatory admirer had been imbibing too freely and he was hustled off to a magistrate and fined $10. Mr.

Bryan was unaware of the arrest of the man who, if he had been sober might have given a less sentimental and more practical support to his favorite candidate by paying $10 to the campaign fund instead of paying it in a fine."

Money mad! Money mad! It certainly looks like Tom Lawson in 1912.

MR. CHANLER.

We recall Mr. Chanler, Democratic candidate for governor of New York,

as the young man whose face and

erous "mats" and cuts that reached our office last winter, accompanied by pleasing references to the young man's fitness for the Democratic presidential nomination. Since then he has been sued by his presidential press agent, who alleges that he was to be paid $10,000 for doing the advance work for the Chanler boom.

Mr. Chanler is a rich young knickerbocker, and will help out materially with the campaign fund.

TAFT'S CREDENTIALS.

The force of public opinion is beginning to tell in this campaign.

There never was a man able to judge the trend of popular sentiment better than Theodore Roosevelt, and after a careful canvass of the situation he gave out his opinion that Hughes is the logical candidate in

New York. The announcement provoked a storm of protest from that kind of politicians, who are used to getting their campaign funds from protected criminals. They declared the boodle vote would defeat Hughes, because of his anti-gambling crusade.

Such was their only ground for fighting him, and such may be accepted as the issue so far as New York state is concerned. We may well let New York alone to determine whether her decent people or the gamblers are dominant there.

But the effect on the national election of Hughes' nomination cannot be overestimated. His admirers in the middle west are legion; irrespective of party. It was a question as to whether a majority of the better element preferred Hughes or Taft. If federal influence cut any figure in the Republican campaign before the convention, it was as the determining factor between Taft and Hughes. The fact that Hughes made the opening speech of the campaign in the middle western states, unequivocally indorsing Taft's candidacy, and that he is

candidate for governor of New York with the indorsement of the national administration, confutes the two great moral factors in national politics, and strengthens the Republican hold on the middle west. Hughes'

Root's and Roosevelt's backing of the Taft candidacy, coupled with the last words of Grover Cleveland, designating Mr. Taft as the "man of the hour", best equipped for solving our national problems, certainly makes

Taft the choice of America's foremost citizens; an ex-president, one just ready to retire, another the prospective successor and another a great lawyer, who sacrificed a fortune in fees to devote his talents to his country. Can Mr. Bryan duplicate these recommendations?

VOICE OF THE PEOPLE.

Paducah, Ky., Sept. 16, 1908.

Editor Sun:—You were quite right yesterday when you said "Don't close the schools." The agitation of this matter does incalculable harm to school children and affects the efficiency of the schools materially.

Children are easily frustrated and grow excited over the public discussion of this question. The school teacher is ever on the alert to keep their restless minds from wandering and to hold them steadily to the work in hand. Ways and means are available in an orderly way for continuing school the full term, bonds or no bonds. When expenditures have grown apace until they are greater than the income, a little simple arithmetic properly applied soon corrects the fault. There is not a commercial or banking concern in the city that would hesitate to ask for the immediate resignation of its directors the moment it became apparent that they were not equal to the safe and certain administration of its affairs in the customary way, and replace them with a new board. I assume that my children are representatives of all school children and I am aware that they are unsettled and that any further public discussion of this matter will only serve to disturb them in that serenity of mind that should prevail at the time. A FATHER.

Utah Republicans Nominate Ticket.
Salt Lake City, Utah, Sept. 17.—The Republican state convention nominated a complete state ticket, including congressmen and three presidential electors, and adopted a platform which warmly indorses the administration of President Roosevelt and the nominees of the national convention. William E. Spy, of Salt Lake, heads the ticket for governor. Sharp criticism is made in the platform of the American party movement and the anti-Mormon political organization, which has been promised for several years, particularly in Salt Lake.

KING EDWARD CHUMMY

WITH SULTAN OF TURKEY.
Constantinople, Sept. 17.—A telegram sent by King Edward to the sultan of Turkey on the anniversary of the latter's accession to the throne was made public today and produced a decided sensation on account of the friendliness of its tone. The message evidently was intended to offset the advances made to the sultan by Emperor William. After the formal congratulations, King Edward said: "There is every reason to hope that under the enlightened direction of so eminent a Grand Vizier your majesty's empire will have a peaceful and prosperous future and that the veneration of posterity will be secured for your majesty."

A man has about as much use for his poor relatives as his rich ones have for him.

Want Gun to Reach Airship.

Washington, Sept. 17.—As a result of the successful trial of the Wright aeroplane during the past two weeks by Orville Wright at Fort Myer, a joint commission, composed of officers of the ordnance department, the signal corps and the artillery corps of the army, may within a few months undertake experiments to determine the possibility of damaging an airship in flight. The German government has conducted experiments along this line and European army officers claim that an aerial warship is immune from artillery fire at a height of 5,000 feet. The German government is developing a special mortar for firing at balloons and airships as field guns can not be adjusted to very great angles.

FATHER ALARMED BY LETTER.

Does Not Know How to Take Suggestions for a Novel.

A gentleman recently opened a letter addressed to his son, containing suggestions from a friend to the latter for a novel which he (the son) was privately writing. The father was exceedingly surprised and frightened upon reading the following dreadful words: "Dear Bob,—You really must show more caution in constructing your plots, or the governor will be sure to discover the dead body of Geraldine in the cellar, and then your secret will be out. You consult me about the strychnine. I certainly think you are giving it to him in rather large doses. Let Emily put her mother in a madhouse. It will answer your purpose well to have the old girl out of the way. I think your forgery is far too small a sum. Make it $3,000. Leave the rest of your particularly nice family circle to me. I will finish them off; and send you back the 'fatal dagger' afterward by book post.—Yours, Jack."

As to Incurables.

New York, Sept. 17.—"When a child is incurable don't send him to the disciplinary schools off hand. Have his throat examined by a health department physician. You will find that in many instances this incurability and truancy can be traced to adenoid growths in the throat." That is what Superintendent of Schools Dr. W. H. Maxwell told a hundred principals who went to the Dewitt Clinton High school for a heart to heart talk about intimate school matters. Dr. Maxwell continued: "No pupil should be sent to the school for discipline until he has been tried out in two schools and then I want such a one examined by health department physicians before he is sent."

A Definition.

An ingenious and amusing answer was recently given by a student in the natural philosophy class at Princeton University. An instructor gave the question, "Define transparent, translucent and opaque." "I cannot, professor," answered the student, "precisely define those terms, but I can indicate their meaning in this way: The windows of this room were once transparent, they are not translucent, and if not cleaned very soon they will be opaque."—Lippincott's.

A KENTUCKY EXPERIENCE.

Coffee and Tea Still at Work.

A Ky. lady had a very agreeable experience, in leaving off coffee drink which she found harmful, and taking on Postum. She never loses an opportunity to tell others of her good fortune. She says:

"For over 20 years I suffered from nervous trouble. Four years ago I was down with nervous prostration and heart trouble. After several months of misery, my doctor, one of the best in the country, told me I must quit coffee and tea."

"What was I to do? I must have some warm beverage for breakfast as I had never done without one in my life."

"I decided to try Postum, little thinking it would amount to anything. At first I did not like it, but when we boiled it 15 minutes, until it was dark and rich, it was delicious, and I soon began to feel better."

"After using Postum constantly three years I feel like a different person. I always had been a poor sleeper but now sleep well and am in perfect health. And I give the credit to Postum."

"My entire family now use it in preference to any other beverage at meals. I am an enthusiastic friend of Postum and I know that what I have done for me it will do for others, so I never let a chance go by to recommend it to those who suffer from coffee drinking."

FASH FOR EDUCATED SCRUBBER

Fortune Falls to Oxford Graduate Who Did Odd Jobs at Toledo.

Toledo, Ohio, Sept. 17.—Henry Stacey Alford, graduate of Oxford University, England, who during two years earned his living in Toledo by doing odd jobs of housecleaning, is heir to a large fortune in his native land and his relatives are anxious to find him.

Alford has not been seen in Toledo for two months and there is reason to believe he went to Detroit, Mich.

When Alford applied to Dr. Jennings of the Adams street Mission for work the latter was astonished not only at the man's neat appearance but at the education and refinement of which his language and manners gave evidence.

At places where Alford worked he casually quoted Shakespeare while he scrubbed floors and discussed Latin with schoolboys of the family while he washed the windows.

S.S.S. FOR BAD BLOOD

When bad blood is caused from an infection of the circulation by the virus of Contagious Blood Poison, it usually shows in the form of ulcerated mouth and throat, copper-colored spots on the body, swollen glands in the groin, falling hair, sores and ulcers, etc. These general symptoms, affecting all parts of the body, show how deeply poisoned the blood becomes, and emphasize the dangerous character of the trouble. If allowed to remain in the system the disease will finally wreck the health and break down the strongest constitution. No medicine can cure Contagious Blood Poison which does not rid the circulation of every particle of the virus. S. S. S. is the one real and certain cure; it goes down to the very bottom of the trouble, and by removing every trace of the poison, and adding rich, healthful qualities to the blood, forever cures this powerful disorder. S. S. S. is the most reliable of all blood purifiers, and its concentrated ingredients of healthful vegetable extracts and juices especially adapt it to curing this insidious trouble. Write for our home treatment book, which is a valuable aid in the treatment of the different stages of the disease, and ask for any special medical advice you wish. No charge for either.

WOMAN'S FRIENDSHIPS.

Lots of Acquaintance, But Few Friends—Can't Smoke, One Cause Given.

Friendship is practically dead among society women. Of course, there are many individual instances of true and lasting attachment to be found among women of today, but the general rule is to have an endless succession of acquaintances with scarcely any of whom has one more than a casual intimacy. The same forces are at work among men, as among women, but cannot do so much damage owing to the freer condition of man's lives and also owing to that great promoter of friendship, tobacco. If women would go to each other's homes "for a smoke," and sit in blessed silence watching the blue rings dissolve, their friendships would be deeper and longer; for where two people are suited to be comrades silence is not only a blessing, but a form of expression. Whereas women, if they meet together at all, must talk; there is nothing else to do, and the casual cigarette of the modern hostess and guest cannot take the place of the comfortable pipe or the serious cigar.—London Black and White.

YEARN FOR HUGS AND KISSES AT 88

Aged Millionaire Who Won and Jilted Girl.

Miss Licklider Balked at "Soul Mate" Wedding—Suces for $50,000.

IS A THROB IN EVERY LINE

New York, Sept. 16.—Eighty-eight winters have not blunted the effervescent bubbles of romance and courtship from the remarkable frame of John Washington Free, a millionaire malt machine inventor. A pleasant-faced Missouri girl of twenty-five summers, Nellie B. Licklider, listened to the honeyed words of the aged swain, left her old home near Kansas City and strangely enough really learned to love a man who has bridged the lifetime of two men. But she awakened abruptly when he sought to wed her in typical soul-mate style through a spiritualistic medium, and with her realization she seeks $50,000 damages for a broken heart.

Incidentally she will show the court 200 love letters, full of promises, oaths of loyalty and pictures of bliss on California ranches and in southern summer homes. Until the suit was filed Free lived at the Gilsey House. He is now at the Breslin, while Miss Licklider has apartments in a hotel three blocks away.

A Throb in Every Line.

The letters cover a period of two years. They are a curiously interesting mass of documents, a throb in almost every line—all in the palmed handwriting of the aged wooer, and indicating, she maintains in her suit for breach of promise, that the "gay old boy," as she fondly hailed him, easily spanned the sixty-three years' discrepancy in their ages with sentiments and declarations after with youth's love and devotion. Miss Licklider balked at a proposed spiritualistic wedding proposed by Free, and was jilted.

Some of the letters follow:
Gilsey House, June 16.—Good Little Nellie: Every hour I think of you. Surely, as the big hall clock sounds the hour I grow weary and sad because you are not here. I wish there were no clocks. Then I would not be reminded of my age. But, my little girl, I'm not old, am I? My father lived to be 102 years old. As long as man loves he won't die. I can never die, when I have you. I'll live longer than you, Nellie, and am not worrying about my happiness. Kisses and hugs and wishes for good luck for me and you. JOHN W.

No One to Hug and Kiss Him.
June 20, 1907.—Nellie, My Dear: Outside the rain is deluging the streets. Everywhere it is dark and gloomy. The beautiful month of roses closes with a shroud over its hopes of a cheerful summer. What can I do on such a day? The gloomy exterior brings back your hazel eyes and slender frame. I love so well, more forcibly than ever. I must tell you how I would love to sit down and have a good chat. Oh, how well I know a few hugs would not hurt us, and Nellie, you know a few of those kisses from your cherry lips would bring back the magnetism I need so much.

JOHN W.
July 16, 1907.—My Own Nellie B: California flowers bloom forever, so flourishes my love for you. If only I had my sales completed and my invention, which Uncle Sam needs so much, in the hands of more active men. My brain conceived it and wrought it. Now I want some to use it. Life is unreal. Father Time has dealt lightly with me, but fortune has laid an iron fist on my nose. You are wealthy today and poor tomorrow. Would that I could close the book of business life and race away to California's orchards of ever-fresh roses with you. JOHN W.

November 18, 1907.—Good Nellie: She is gone. Thanks to everybody, I'm glad. She came to buy stock in my invention. She is old, very old, and disagreeable. Isn't it awful to be old. You are away from me—way out in Missouri—and I have no one to hug me and kiss me. It might not have tired me if I could have squeezed her a bit. When we went out for lunch she would say: "Don't walk so fast—I'm sort of old." Think of that. Remember how fast we walk, don't we? Life is nothing without the greatest thing in life—mutual love. Real love makes you happy and every one else glad. I'm thinking of you every atom of time's remains. JOHN W.

SIGNAL CORPS WEAK

NEEDS STRENGTHENING ON LINES OF OTHER NATIONS.

Successful Aerial Tests Bring Cause For Action—Bill Now Before Congress.

Washington, Sept. 16.—With the utility of aerial navigation as an adjunct to the army in time of war practically demonstrated by the phenomenal flights made at Fort Myer during the past week by Orville Wright; with the activity displayed by foreign governments in securing aerial navies and with the advantage of maintaining the various units of an army in time of war strikingly illustrated in recent international conflicts, military authorities are urging the necessity for increasing the strength of the signal corps of the army. Indeed, there is now awaiting the action of the military committee of the senate, a bill providing for doubling the strength of the signal corps.

The signal corps is now a staff corps, and has a quota of about 1,200 officers and men. The bill awaiting the action of congress provides for a full peace strength of 2,500 officers and men, and if passed, will put the signal corps in the line of the army.

The signal corps has a large number of officers detailed from the infantry, cavalry and artillery, for a short period of time and others who are only attached to the signal corps. More than in any other branch of the service, the officers and men of the signal service require special training.

In the Russo-Japanese war, the value of maintaining constant means of communication between the various units of an army during active field operations was fully illustrated. Military experts the world over claim that the Japanese won because of their efficient "team work."

Gen. James Allen, the chief signal officer, has endeavored to keep pace with European countries in the application of the aeronautics to army work. As the annual appropriation for equipment for the signal corps is only $250,000, it was found necessary to apply to the board of ordnance and equipment for funds to purchase aerial craft with which the aeronautical division of the corps might make a beginning in the new science which seems destined to play a most important part in future conflicts.

The board of signal corps officers conducting the Fort Myer test has never had its full membership present at those tests because of the necessity for sending one or more members elsewhere. Lieut. Richard B. Creecy was loaned to the signal corps by the commander of the marine corps to aid in conducting the aeronautical tests, and the entire strength of the aeronautical division of the corps is about three officers and twelve men, as compared with three corps of 150 men each in the British army, and nearly a thousand in the German army.

The construction of the Washington-Alaska military cable, its maintenance, the operation of the Philippines cable in Alaska, Cuba, the Philippines and the United States has required the services of a large percentage of the forces of the signal corps.

TREATS DEATH AS JOKE.

Fair Circus Performer to Be Seen in Greatest Thriller on Record.

Mlle. La Belle Roche, the young French woman who last winter created a sensation in Europe by the spirit of daring and superhuman nerve she displayed in a new and dangerous automobile somersault, is soon to be seen in Paducah, she having been engaged to exploit this new circus thriller with Ringling Brothers' World's Greatest Show, which exhibits here Wednesday, September 30. No act of any man or woman has ever created the excitement that this French girl creates with her automobile accomplishing two complete revolutions in mid-air.

The heavy machine is plunged into space by a lightning-like dash down a steep steel track from the dome of the tent. The abrupt ending of the incline in a sharp curve sends the car high above the heads of the audience. Twice it somersaults, the brave young driver firmly holding the wheel. Then with a crash it lands upright on a spring platform.

On show day a branch ticket office will be located in Gilbert's drug store, where reserved seats and admissions can be bought at the regular prices. At 10 o'clock in the forenoon the parade will pass through the principal streets.

Kodol will, without doubt, make your stomach strong and will almost instantly relieve you of all the symptoms of indigestion. Get a bottle of it today. It is sold here by all druggists.

PRESIDENT WANTS TO FLY; WRIGHT FEARS ACCIDENT.

Washington, D. C., Sept. 17.—A new sensation in the government trials in aeronautics was furnished today by a persistent report that President Roosevelt has announced his intention of going up with the navigator, as was predicted in Mr. McCutcheon's cartoon last Sunday. While no one would acknowledge word had been received from the president, Mr. Wright talked freely of the possibility.

"I have heard the report that President Roosevelt wants to ascend with me," he acknowledged today. "I am sorry. I don't believe the president should take such chances. Of course, flying in the air is as safe as riding in a street car, but there are accidents that might happen. Aside from my relatives such an accident to me would mean nothing, but the nation would be the sufferer if the president was injured or killed."

The president will return to Washington next week. It is said it will be reasonably certain he will insist upon accompanying the navigator in one of his flights.

OHIO SITUATION IS SATISFACTORY

Foreaker Says He Can See Nothing But Victory.

Old War Horse Out Hustling Lining Up His Followers For the Ticket.

MANY LABOR MEN ARE IN LINE

Cincinnati, O., Sept. 17.—There has been a recent and marked betterment in the Republican political situation in Ohio. Just a month ago I visited this state, and from this city wrote, expressing grave doubt about the ability of the party to carry the state ticket, and pointed out some of the most unsatisfactory conditions I found here. What I said then was true. Some of these conditions remain, but others have been met and bettered, says a Globe Democrat correspondent.

At that time Senator Joseph Benson Foreaker was out of the state rusticated in Maine, and I did not get to talk with him. At that time the state committee had formally decided not to have him participate in the opening of the campaign at Youngstown. At that time it seemed as though the candidates for the United States Senate would, by their conflicting ambitions, contribute to the defeat of the party at the polls, or at least to the loss of the State Legislature. Now I learn that there has been an agreement, publicly pledged, among the candidates to take no step, or make no plan, other than for the securing of a Republican majority in the legislature, and contributing to the success of the party at the polls. Personal ambitions are to be put aside, with an understanding that there will be a free fighting field when the Republican majority is secured.

Foreaker to Take Stamp.

Senator Foreaker is back and the country has read of his personal call, two days ago, on Mr. Taft at his headquarters, and their lengthy conference. Shortly before that there was the meeting of the two at Toledo, Ohio. Yesterday as I sat at the desk of the Ohio senator and asked him if he proposed to co-operate with the managers of the Republican campaign and lend his aid to the success of the ticket, he looked at me severely and wanted to know if I could picture him in the role of a Democrat supporting Bryan. Even more significant of his present attitude was his action, while I was in his office, of dictating a telegram to Mr. Frank Hitchcock, chairman of the Republican national committee, accepting an invitation to speak in New York City, October 1, and indicating his willingness to make other speeches under the direction of the national committee.

To the senator I put the question as to the situation in the state and the prospects of the party. The way in which he answered showed that, while alive to all unfavorable conditions in Ohio, there was naught in them, nor in any disposition on his part to be out of line with his party, that prompted him to a belief that the party will not win.

Unwilling to Make Forecast.

"Since I returned from my vacation," the senator said, "I have been, with the exception of a trip to Toledo, constantly in my office. I have only seen such people as called. My information is not, therefore, sufficient to warrant me in speaking with much confidence as to election results."

The scene in the office, while I was there for a couple of hours, would seem to indicate that the senator had the best possible facilities for arriving at conclusions. I kept at least five people, all from different parts of the state or the city, waiting while I talked with him. While there, he received telegrams from two congressional conventions as to their deliberations and the telephone calls kept him constantly interrupted while he answered queries from city and state.

"My information may be sufficient," he continued, "for me to say that I have heard nothing that causes me to doubt that the state will choose Taft electors and a Republican state ticket, from the governor down. When I say this I do not mean to ignore the fact that in Cincinnati and other large cities the temperance question will cause Gov. Harris to lose a good many votes, perhaps several thousands; but our expectation is that he will at least make up the city losses in the country counties. Many claim that he will much more than make up in the country what he will lose in the cities. I do not feel qualified to give any very positive information on this subject, but my impressions are as indicated.

Sanguine of Ohio Success.

"So far as the national ticket is concerned we have the same trouble with the labor vote and with other elements that they appear to be having in other states. But while these troubles may reduce the Republican plurality, it will not be effective to the extent of eliminating it. We hope, in other words, to give the electoral vote of Ohio to Mr. Taft. re-elect Gov. Harris, choose a Republican Legislature, and elect some Republican senator."

Seeing a question about to be put the senator smiled broadly, shook his head as if to ward it off, and added,

After suffering for seven years, this woman was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read her letter.

Mrs. Sallie French, of Painesville, Ind. Ter., writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I had female troubles for seven years—was all run-down, and so nervous I could not do anything. The doctors treated me for different troubles but did me no good. While in this condition I wrote to Mrs. Pinkham for advice and took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I am now strong and well."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness, or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if there is anything about your sickness you do not understand. She will treat your letter in confidence and advise you free. No woman ever regretted writing her, and because of her vast experience she has helped thousands. Address, Lynn, Mass.

"You must excuse me from speaking further on the latter subject."

In addition to the agreement between Senator Foreaker, Representative Burton, Harry Daugherty, Dr. Reed and the other senatorial candidates, to give no effort in any direction other than party success, the party leaders tell me that the negro vote of the state has been gradually but surely drifting back into line for the party. They attribute it, in part, to the influence of Senator Foreaker, whom the negroes are willing and anxious to follow, and whose qualities as an intense old school party man have prompted him to advise his friends and following not to desert the party or scratch the ticket.

The platform declaration of the West Virginia Democrats that is successful they would disfranchise the negroes in that state has demonstrated what the colored voter may expect from the Bryan party and has so contributed to the same end.

Labor Vote in Line.

Again they argue improvement in the situation in connection with the labor vote. The state campaign was opened at Youngstown, which is one of the most important industrial centers of the state. In the parade, which was a part of the day's program, there were no less than 13,000 union labor men among the marchers, or 90 per cent of the labor population of the city.

The entrance of Mr. Taft into the state, of itself, has aided in improving the situation. It has had a tendency to dispel apathy and produce enthusiasm. Great crowds have greeted him and cheered his speeches to the echo, in his progress from Athens to Sandusky and from there to this city. Right here, in Hamilton county, where the local issue is said to play a most important part, it is admitted that, though the county may be lost by Gov. Harris, it will be carried by Mr. Taft and the national ticket. Securing the expressions of men who, in past campaigns, have shown ability to forecast results with seeming precision and the prophetic vision of seventh sons of seventh sons, it seems now, a conservative statement, to say that Mr. Taft will carry Ohio by 75,000, and a majority of the men with whom I talk contend for 100,000 as a conservative figure.

MAN IN SHEATH

CLINGING COATS TO SHOW OFF
MASCULINE FORM.

Experts at Fashion Show, However, Permit of Vests in "Scheaming" Colors.

Chicago, Sept. 17.—Sheath effects have invaded the male wardrobe. Narrow, clinging coats, guaranteed to adhere closely to the form of man and impart the same svelte appearance affected by the other sex, will be "the thing" this fall.

The fact was shown yesterday at the opening of the American Style and Fashion Show at 185 Dearborn street. Numerous examples of the sheath style in men's apparel were on display. They were sent from all parts of the country for the exhibition, which, many Chicago tailors assert, signifies that the nation is realizing that the well-dressed man follows the styles accepted by Chicago.

One of the noticeable "sheaths" was an exhibit from Pittsburg. It was a business coat. Cut narrow about the hips and fastened by two buttons, it slopes upward in a delicate curve, fitting snugly at the shoulder and cut low in front. The "invisible braid" running along the edge of the lapels and cuffs was declared "very proper."

Coat Buttons Under Sleeve.
Another "sheath" coat was disclosed in "the honeymoon." This coat is double-breasted and buttons almost under the sleeve on the left side. As the wallet pocket is on the right, inside, it is declared to be almost impossible to reach.

Overcoats for this fall and winter seem to follow the same line. A noticeable departure from the usual is the style of having the overcoats creased in the back instead of the sides. Extra flares in the skirt of the overcoat are also new.

John J. Maypole, a Chicago tailor, spoke of the fall styles in overcoats. "Overcoats for younger men," he declared, "will be of a less quiet style than those of the older men. Several tailors have their stock marked for the ages of their customers."

The vest exhibition also attracted considerable attention.

It was impossible that it should not. For vests will be "screams" this season, according to the tailors. From the glaring canary master-

"Directoire" Frowned On.
"Directoire" trousers, recently exploited in the east, are frowned upon by tailors throughout the rest of the country. The mere mention of them at the exhibition yesterday was enough to classify the speaker as a vulgar tyro in the school of sartorial art.

There will be no certain color for clothes, according to Frederick T. Croonborg, director of the display. Trousers will remain wide at the hips and have the "Spring bottom" effect. Hundreds of out-of-town tailors are in town to get hints for the coming season. The show lasts until tomorrow evening.

TEACHER LOCKED OUT.
For Revenge He Chastised Whole School.

Huntingdon, Tenn., Sept. 17.—News of a sensational affair in school circles of the Thirteenth district of the county has reached here. On the closing day of one of the rural schools in that district, a few days ago, the pupils, for a lark, locked the male teacher, who is a well-known educator of the county, out of the school building, and compelled him to remain outside for several hours. When the professor was finally admitted his ire had been aroused to a high pitch, and he proceeded to administer a wholesale chastising to the pupils for the hazarding conferred upon him. Nearly a score of the pupils, of all ages and sizes, were soundly whipped. It is alleged, in an unusually severe manner, and considerable hard feeling has been aroused in the community, which may, it is said, terminate in the courts.

Several of the parents of the children punished were in the city yesterday, interviewing lawyers in regard to the case.

RECOUNT ASKED BY CANDIDATES

Both Warner and Bradley Claim Nomination.

Bradley Makes No Specific Allegations in His Petition, Warner Does.

SOME BALLOTS THROWN OUT.

Lansing, Mich., Sept. 17.—When the state canvassing board met this afternoon to canvass the vote of the recent primary for the nomination of candidates for governor and lieutenant governor, Dr. J. B. Bradley, who was unsuccessful in his campaign against Governor Warner for the Republican gubernatorial nomination, filed a petition asking a recount in specified precincts in Sanilac, Huron, Lapeer, Alger, Menominee and Marquette counties.

In all of these the governor received a heavy majority of the votes cast. No specific allegations are made in Bradley's petition.

Later Warner requested a recount of the votes in the cities of Saginaw, Muskegon, Kalamazoo, Sturgis, Jackson (wards 1 and 12), Grand Rapids, and townships of Pinconning, Bay County; Milwaukee, Saginaw County; Leslie, Ingham County. The governor's petition alleges that in some instances the votes cast for Warner were counted for Horatio S. Earle, who was the third candidate in the field for the Republican nomination; that ballots were wrongfully thrown out as mutilated, and that both Bradley and Earle were credited in the returns with more votes than they received. Warner claims his plurality is 1,662.

LESTER MURPHEY

BREAKS INTO MAYFIELD STORE SUNDAY NIGHT.

Tried and Sent to Asylum—Has Always Borne a Good Reputation.

Sunday night just after 12 o'clock some one was discovered upstairs in W. E. Norman's clothing store, says the Messenger.

The police were notified and they notified Mr. Norman, who came to the store for the purpose of ascertaining who was there and what was the matter. Mr. Norman secured a lantern and entered the front door, while the rear end of the house was guarded by Policeman Alf Brown.

Upon entering the store Mr. Norman heard some one upstairs run toward the front end of the house and jump out of the window onto the roof of the front awning or shed. Mr. Norman went out into the street and saw a man who seemed to be trying to get away. He ordered him to come down and at the same time fired a shot from his pistol in the air.

He shot again at the person with the intent of hitting him. By this time Policeman Alf Brown had run around to the front, when he also ordered the man to come down. He then climbed down and fell into the hands of Mr. Norman and the police. At this juncture Mr. Norman raised the hat of the man and found him to be Lester Murphey, a well known young man of the city. He was taken to the police headquarters, when his family was notified of what had taken place.

His father went on his bond and he was taken home, where he remained until Wednesday morning, when he was tried for insanity before County Judge Ed Crossland.

Quite a number of witnesses were examined, who had known the young man from his birth, and several doctors were also examined who had previously examined the young man—all of whom testified that it was their opinion that he is of unsound mind, and was not at all at himself when he entered Mr. Norman's store.

Lester Murphey is a graduate of West Kentucky college and has always borne as good character as any young man in the country. He was sober, honest, moral and studious. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Murphey, his father being a candidate for county judge. He is 21 years old and has between $300 and $400 worth of property and has always been good for his debts, and could get credit at any of the stores he might ask.

He will be escorted to the asylum at Hopkinsville by Sam Norman, who has known him from his birth.

WIFE DIES; MAN A SUICIDE.

Strange Tragedy in Williamson County, Tenn.

Nashville, Tenn., Sept. 17.—News has reached Nashville of a double tragedy in Williamson county, in which Mrs. Jack Buttrey was so badly frightened by the accidental discharge of her husband's gun that she died in an hour, and of Mr. Buttrey's suicide because of grief over the death of his wife twenty-four hours later.

Buttrey heard a disturbance in his poultry house before day, Saturday morning, and went to investigate. Finding nothing, he returned to his bedroom, where his wife was, when the gun was discharged, tearing a hole through the ceiling and the weatherboarding. Mrs. Buttrey was in a delicate condition at the time, hence the result. The couple leave a daughter, 2 1/2 years old.

BOLOGNA SAUSAGE

ALLEGED TO HAVE CAUSED THE DEATH OF CHILD.

Father of Little Girl Claims She Was Poisoned—Suit Against Packing Company.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 17.—George A. Pike, as administrator for Ora Pike, has filed suit for $2,000 against the Evansville Packing company upon rather unusual grounds.

The plaintiff states in his petition that his 3-year-old daughter died on July 3 from poison contained in some Bologna sausage which she ate. He charges that this sausage was put up by the defendant company and sold by them to a wholesale house and they in turn to a retail dealer in Kefey, who sold it to the family. He states that after the child died he had a sample of the sausage analyzed by a physician and it was found to contain poison. The charge is made that the defendant through negligence, in not taking proper precautions in packing the sausage, is responsible for the child's death.

SHERIFF RENSHAW SUES.

Seeks to Obtain $1,000 From the Former Sheriff of Christian.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Sept. 17.—J. M. Renshaw, appointed sheriff of Christian county when David Smith was ousted from the office, has filed suit against Mr. Smith, M. V. Dulin and James West on an indemnifying bond and against Mr. Smith personally, damage in the sum of $1,000 being asked in each case. The suits are the outgrowth of the Shrievally case, which attracted so much attention while it was being tried out in the courts and which necessitated two decisions from the court of appeals before being finally decided, both these decisions being in favor of Mr. Renshaw.

The suits which have now been brought are for the purpose of recovering from Mr. Smith in the amounts which Mr. Renshaw claims he lost and was damaged by being kept out of his office by injunction.

Edwards, Goodman & Company, of Liverpool, in their review for August say: "There is nothing of special interest to report of the market during August. Sales of western leaf and strips were less numerous than in the months immediately preceding, but some parcels of considerable size changed hands at firm prices. Rather more inquiry was experienced for Virginia and Carolina brights and semi-brights, but little actual business seems to have resulted."

REPUBLICAN LEADERS PLEASED

Hughes Will Be Asked To Make Speeches in West.

Chicago, Ill., Sept. 17.—Republican leaders from fourteen Central and Western states, who were assembled here today in conference with Chairman Hitchcock, expressed their gratification at the renomination of Hughes. Without exception these western leaders declared that the action of the New York convention will aid the Republicans in their campaigns in all of the debatable states of the west.

Requests that Gov. Hughes be sent into western states to make campaign addresses have been received in great numbers, and many of the chairmen of state central committees have been insistent in their demands.

Chairman Hitchcock and Senator Dixon, director of the speakers' bureau of the western quarters, left Chicago tonight for Cincinnati, where they will confer with Judge Taft concerning the itinerary arranged for the western trip.

Brushing the Hair.

"Very few men brush their hair enough," said a downtown barber. "Fact. Most of the scalp can be traced to that fault. You see it's this way, a man is generally in a hurry when he dresses, and he never takes time to brush his hair, simply smooths it down, generally only with a time watching the clock.

comb, and as a result dandruff is allowed to accumulate and trouble begins. Now, with a woman it's different. A woman has to carefully brush her hair at least once a day. If she didn't, it would be a pretty mess; its very length saves her, for in brushing it each day she gets out all sorts of impurities, dandruff and the like, all of which is for her own good. Now that is the chief reason why fewer women suffer from dandruff than the unfortunate members of the opposite sex, and it is a woman's crowning glory, even if she is fair, fat and 40. So, brush your hair every morning thoroughly. If you want to keep in the swim. You're right. Next, sir." —Philadelphia Record.

Every man is firmly convinced that there is the making of a hero concealed about his person.

When love works it wastes no time watching the clock.
